Hon'ble J.C.S. Rawat, J.

Heard Sri Navneet Kaushik learned counsel for the applicant and learned A.G.A. for the State.

Perused the record. It was contended on behalf of the applicant that the LPG cylinders had been booked by different persons and the list of these persons had been given in the FIR also, but no statements of those persons have been recorded by the prosecution. Considering the facts and totality of the circumstances of the case, it is a fit case for bail.

Let the applicant-accused be released on bail on executing a personal bond and two sureties each in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Magistrate concerned.
